Bio

Drake has been entertaining people since he could talk...whether it was telling jokes, making everyone around him laugh, or just being crazy. He moved to L.A. seven years ago to pursue his acting career, and hasn't looked back since. He started doing stand-up over five years ago, and couldn't have found a better fit! He graduated from High School early and is currently enrolled in College finishing his education on line. Drake has also been racing his Boxster Spec Racecar in the Porsche Owner Club of America and won this year's series championship in his division.

Drake has a Passion for Raising Awareness for Kids with Cancer through CCRF, also makes presentations on "Quick Tips on Winning in Life" through "Racers Who Care", and he started "Rally 4 A Cause" where Drivers give back to Charity. Drake loves to skateboard, do action sports, stand-up comedy, and racing. Drake's goal is to have a lead role on a Sitcom and be a professional racecar driver.

Drake Kemper, is back as this year's Emcee. Drake is currently Guest-Starring in Episodes of The Wedding Band.", and "Mad Love" also recently Co-Starred on Awkward, Forum Wars, 90210, The Middle, and iCarly. Drake is working on a new Television Pilot.

Drake has performed nation-wide live on stages from Gotham Comedy Club NYC to the LA IMPROV, and Spokesperson for CCRF.
