

SCOTT "LUCKY" HUDSON

NHRA Supergas competitor, Scott "Lucky" Hudson joined RWC's Quick Tips on Winning in Life L.A. presentation team in late 2007.

In addition to drag racing, Hudson is host of the international weekly SpeedScene Live online telecast and a motorsports journalist. Additionally, he is a live race announcer for the National Hot Rod Association.

Within a very short time after joining RWC, Lucky had done an ESPN radio interview, a Radio Disney interview, advised RWC on a television Public Service Announcement; and at the request of ESPN Radio, wrote, produced and starred in a 60-second radio Public Service Announcement featuring one of RWC's Quick Tips!

He has hosted hundreds of elementary school students in RWC's annual Quick Tips on Winning in Life Field Trip Program at the Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach, and led the children on paddock tours to meet racers and see teamwork in action, and learn about the importance of math and science in technology, and writing in communicating with co-workers and the public.
