Amazing Racers

Racers overcome tremendous odds to succeed in a high stakes sport. They are exceptional leaders who embody teamwork. Their profession demands it. None of this is lost on kids. Racers Who Care provides children all over the world with access to these extraordinary men and women in order to ask questions and hear their stories. These elite individuals energize basic steps to reach goals by walking kids through a roadmap to achieve them. It is personal, it is motivating, and it is life changing for young people. This short documentary film introduces us to some of the “Amazing Racers” from Racers Who Care.

Directed by Susan Colleen Snell (USA)
